

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Tuesday, August 18

1998

New Contractor Selected for Custodial/Refuse Collection

Creative Management Technology Inc. of Cocoa Beach, Fla., has been selected for award of a contract to provide custodial and refuse collection services for Marshall. The quality of services provided to the Center should not be affected. The contract begins Sept. 16 with a one-year base period, followed by four one-year options which may be exercised at Marshall's discretion. If all options are exercised, the contract would be worth as much as $15,208,723.

'KSAs' Topic of Workshop Set for 9 a.m.-noon Wed. in Bldg. 4200, Room G-13

Business Start-Up Consultations Available by Appointment Thurs.

Northeast Alabama Regional Small Business Development Center representatives will be available Thursday at the Career Transition Assistance Program (CTAP) Center to offer personal consultations about business development and/or starting a business. An appointment is required for private, one-hour sessions. Federal employees and spouses may attend. Contact: CTAP Center, 5-1354

MARS Volleyball Club Seeking New Members; Meeting Set for Thurs.

The MARS Coed Volleyball Club welcomes participants in all volleyball skill levels to attend a 1998 organizational meeting at noon Thursday in the all purpose room at the NASA Exchange, Bldg. 4752. Marshall employees, retirees, and their dependents; on-site and off-site contractors are invited. Contact: Dennis Gallagher, 4-7587